Departments side by side

Rates are calculated over working days, so large and small departments can be compared fairly. Departments with fewer than 5 employees are marked with * and their figures move a lot from month to month.

Employees worth a conversation

These flags come from simple rules anyone can check, not from a prediction. They point to where a supportive conversation may help and must never be used on their own for a decision about a person.

Definitions

Term	Meaning
Working day	A scheduled working day while the person is employed, not on approved leave or a public holiday, and whose shift has ended.
Attended	At least one punch on that day.
Late	The first punch came after the shift start plus the grace period. A punch exactly at the end of the grace period is on time.
Absent	A working day with no punch at all. This is decided only after the shift has ended.
Missing punch	Only one punch that day, so either the clock-in or the clock-out is missing.
Hours present	Time from the first to the last punch. Breaks and unrecorded exits are unknown, so this is not confirmed working time.
Night shift	Counted on the date it starts.
Weighted score	Each category score (1 to 5) multiplied by its weight, added up and divided by 100.
